

If ICE agents are at your house asking for you or a loved one, here are some things you can do to reduce risk:

Recommendations

Don't open the door. Remain calm and keep your door closed. Talk to ICE agents through the door. Even if you open the door, it does not give them permission to enter your house.

Remain silent. You don't have to answer their questions. You can say, "I do not consent to you entering or searching my home. I don't want to speak to you without an attorney present. Please leave now."

Ask for a search warrant. Tell ICE agents to show you their ID and a warrant. Tell them to slide the requested documents under the door or show them to you by holding them up to the peephole. No warrant, no entry. Without a warrant signed by a judge, ICE agents cannot enter or search your house. If they do not produce a warrant signed by a judge, keep the door closed. Say, "I don't consent to your entry."

Document everything. If ICE agents overstep their authority, do not resist arrest. Document the incident thoroughly and take pictures of everything they show you.

For more information about what to do if ICE agents are at your door, visit our website, acluidaho.org.

If ICE agents are at your house asking for you or a loved one, here are some things you can do to reduce risk:

Recommendations

Don't open the door. Remain calm and keep your door closed. Talk to ICE agents through the door. Even if you open the door, it does not give them permission to enter your house.

Remain silent. You don't have to answer their questions. You can say, "I do not consent to you entering or searching my home. I don't want to speak to you without an attorney present. Please leave now."

Ask for a search warrant. Tell ICE agents to show you their ID and a warrant. Tell them to slide the requested documents under the door or show them to you by holding them up to the peephole. No warrant, no entry. Without a warrant signed by a judge, ICE agents cannot enter or search your house. If they do not produce a warrant signed by a judge, keep the door closed. Say, "I don't consent to your entry."

Document everything. If ICE agents overstep their authority, do not resist arrest. Document the incident thoroughly and take pictures of everything they show you.

For more information about what to do if ICE agents are at your door, visit our website, acluidaho.org.

If ICE agents are at your house asking for you or a loved one, here are some things you can do to reduce risk:

Recommendations

Don't open the door. Remain calm and keep your door closed. Talk to ICE agents through the door. Even if you open the door, it does not give them permission to enter your house.

Remain silent. You don't have to answer their questions. You can say, "I do not consent to you entering or searching my home. I don't want to speak to you without an attorney present. Please leave now."

Ask for a search warrant. Tell ICE agents to show you their ID and a warrant. Tell them to slide the requested documents under the door or show them to you by holding them up to the peephole. No warrant, no entry. Without a warrant signed by a judge, ICE agents cannot enter or search your house. If they do not produce a warrant signed by a judge, keep the door closed. Say, "I don't consent to your entry."

Document everything. If ICE agents overstep their authority, do not resist arrest. Document the incident thoroughly and take pictures of everything they show you.

For more information about what to do if ICE agents are at your door, visit our website, acluidaho.org.

If ICE agents are at your house asking for you or a loved one, here are some things you can do to reduce risk:

Recommendations

Don't open the door. Remain calm and keep your door closed. Talk to ICE agents through the door. Even if you open the door, it does not give them permission to enter your house.

Remain silent. You don't have to answer their questions. You can say, "I do not consent to you entering or searching my home. I don't want to speak to you without an attorney present. Please leave now."

Ask for a search warrant. Tell ICE agents to show you their ID and a warrant. Tell them to slide the requested documents under the door or show them to you by holding them up to the peephole. No warrant, no entry. Without a warrant signed by a judge, ICE agents cannot enter or search your house. If they do not produce a warrant signed by a judge, keep the door closed. Say, "I don't consent to your entry."

Document everything. If ICE agents overstep their authority, do not resist arrest. Document the incident thoroughly and take pictures of everything they show you.

For more information about what to do if ICE agents are at your door, visit our website, acluidaho.org.

I wish to remain silent.
 I want an attorney.
 I do not consent to any searches.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

When ICE Agents are at Your Door

I wish to remain silent.
 I want an attorney.
 I do not consent to any searches.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

When ICE Agents are at Your Door

I wish to remain silent.
 I want an attorney.
 I do not consent to any searches.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

When ICE Agents are at Your Door

I wish to remain silent.
 I want an attorney.
 I do not consent to any searches.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

When ICE Agents are at Your Door

