

TRANSGENDER VOTING RIGHTS IN IDAHO

To be a successful voter, make sure to do the following:

- Check your voter registration ahead of time to make sure it matches your current legal name, especially if you've recently changed it.
- Register and vote using your current legal name
- Register to vote early, either online (voteidaho.gov), by mail, or in person. Alternatively, you can register to vote in person at the polls on election day with your ID and proof of residence.
- Identify your polling place and note the hours of operation.
- Bring a photo ID with your current legal name.
- If voting in person is uncomfortable for fear of being outed or because your gender marker does not match your identity, consider voting by absentee ballot.

Voting Scenarios:

- IF ...your ID and voter registration match, you should have no issue.
- IF ...you need to re-register to vote with your new legal name, don't worry. You can pre-register to vote up to 25 days prior to the election. You can also register in person at the polls on election day or during early voting with your ID and proof of residence.
- IF ...your gender identity and/or presentation does not match the gender marker on your ID, don't worry. You have the right to cast a ballot. Ask for a Personal Identification Affidavit.

Gender discrepancies on ID are not a valid reason to deny a ballot. If you are not allowed to cast a ballot, ask for a Personal Identification Affidavit and request follow up instructions to make sure your vote gets counted.

DON'T LET CONCERNS KEEP YOU FROM VOTING!

If you're experiencing problems voting, either in-person or by mailing in your absentee ballot, or if you have questions about the voting process,
